

One Beacon Government Risks' Risk Management Online Training Center

Every public entity client with OneBeacon Government Risks is entitled to a number of online training licenses at no additional cost to them. The Online Training Center includes 60+ core courses on topics designed specifically for public entity risk managers, including law enforcement liability, elected officials and playground safety. You can find a full list of current courses in the attached brochure. We encourage you to set up your Online Training Center account and take advantage of this included service.

Registering For and Logging In To Your Online Training Account

To create an online training account, please visit our website, www.onebeacongov.com. You will find the Online Training Center button throughout the site (see photo below); click the button to find information about the Online Training Center and how to login or create an account.

The screenshot shows the OneBeacon Government Risks website. At the top right, there are links for 'Producer Login' and 'onebeacon.com', along with social media icons for LinkedIn, Twitter, and YouTube. The main navigation bar includes 'News', 'Blog', 'Resources', 'About Us', and 'Contact Us'. Below this, there are three large image-based buttons: 'RISK Management' (with a road sign icon), 'CLAIMS' (with a courtroom icon), and 'PRODUCTS' (with a sheriff's dog icon). A yellow arrow points from the 'RISK Management' button to a highlighted box containing a 'Risk Management Online Training Center' button with a 'Learn More' link. Below the 'RISK Management' button, there is a section titled 'Public Entity Insurance Services' with a paragraph of text and a sub-section 'Report a Public Entity Claim' with a list of contact options. At the bottom, there is a 'Stay In the Know!' section with a RSS icon and a paragraph of text. The footer contains copyright information: '©2014 OneBeacon Insurance Group | Privacy Policy | Terms and Conditions | Producer Compensation Disclosure. A Member of OneBeacon Insurance Group.'

Welcome, Lynne!

OneBeacon Government Risks is pleased to offer online training to your organization. Our online training center includes a robust content selection of courses that have been created with adult learning styles in mind and each course module is estimated for one short session, usually 25-35 minutes in length. By taking advantage of online training, you are expressing a strong commitment to your professional and personal development.

Each quarter, we feature three or four courses of topics important to you. These courses will be automatically assigned to you.

At the end of most course modules, there will be a quiz to assess your understanding of the information provided.

We are grateful for the opportunity to provide training designed to enhance your work and life experiences.

Admins: Additional courses can be selected and assigned to you or your employees in the Course Library in the Admin section. Your entity has also been issued a number of free courses via coupon code. Upon selecting your courses and checking out, you will be prompted to enter your coupon code. If you have any questions about how to use the coupon code or assign courses, please call LocalGovU at (866) 845-8887.

The leading E-Learning provider for city and county government

Once you select a course, your online training will begin.

The screenshot shows the OneBeacon course interface. At the top left is the OneBeacon logo. The course title 'Basic Jail Security Principles' is centered at the top. On the right, there is a 'Menu' icon and a document icon labeled 'Page 1 of 24'. Below the title bar is a navigation bar with icons for 'Progress & Certificates', 'Preferences', '3rd Party Training', 'Logout', and 'Admin'. A 'Next Page' button is located on the right side of the navigation bar. The main content area features 'Learning Objectives:' followed by a bulleted list: 'Understand the need for a jail security plan and tight controls', 'Recognize key principles of jail security and how to implement them', and 'Identify methods for minimizing and controlling security risks'. Below the list is a large black video player with a play button in the center. Underneath the video player is a credit line 'Content reviewed by' followed by a logo for 'OSS Law Enforcement Advisors®' with the tagline 'LAW ENFORCEMENT, JAIL & SECURITY RISK MANAGERS'. At the bottom of the page, it says 'Powered By LocalGov U' and 'The leading E-Learning provider for city and county government'.

Upon completion of your course, you will be able to print off a certificate for your records. Certificates will be saved in your 'Progress and Certificates' section for future access, as well.

This is a close-up screenshot of the navigation bar from the OneBeacon interface. The 'Progress & Certificates' icon, which features a stopwatch, is highlighted with a yellow rectangular box. Other icons in the bar include 'Preferences', '3rd Party Training', 'Logout', and 'Admin'. The 'Next Page' button is visible on the right side of the navigation bar.
